

Week beginning: Monday 11th March

I am pleased to announce that Sycamore Class have earned their warm fuzzy treat, which will be on Tuesday afternoon this week! We will be sharing our 'Oz' stories with each other in a whole class story time. Then, we will be watching the film, 'The Wizard of Oz'.

Core subjects

This half term our topic is: Lights, Camera, Action!

Maths - This week we are learning about interpreting and presenting statistics.

Literacy - This week we are writing pitches to persuade Mrs Beckett to award our chosen films a BAFTA!

What you can do at home

- Can they help you to add items together whilst in the supermarket? Can they round a shopping receipt?
- What different graphs or tables do you have in your house? What are they used for? What do they tell us and how do we use this data? (E.g. food packets, books).

Home Learning - Please complete at least three of the tasks from the tic-tac-toe grid over this half term. Home learning is marked on a Monday.

Practise threading a needle and sewing in running stitch to create a simple design on fabric.	Use an artistic medium of your choice to illustrate an important scene from a film.	Design a new film poster for Harry Potter or The Wizard of Oz (stage or screen).
Design a costume for a character with detailed labels to explain your creative choices.	Write a detailed review of your favourite film. Can you structure your review using P.D.D?	Create a word search from scientific electricity vocabulary, e.g. circuit, switch, conductor.
Create a flip-book animation. https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/clips/zxyxrdm	Use IMDB (with permission from an adult) to find out how much 3 movies cost to make and how much revenue they made. Which one made the most profit?	Create an electrical safety poster to be displayed either at home or in the classroom.

Spellings - This week spellings will follow the tious pattern. Now we have learnt all common exception words for Y3/4, the words on the spelling test each week will be a mixture of common misspelt words from the children's writing.
