

Week beginning: Monday 12th October 2020

Dear Parent/Carer,

Welcome back to another week in Sycamore. The days are really starting to get nippy, so please do send in a jumper and warm coat each day (especially in case of drizzle!). Coach would like to remind everyone that children with long hair should have hair bands to tie back their hair during P.E., so if that could become part of normal kit, he would be very grateful.

P.E. kits: In on Monday, sent home on Thursday
Home Learning: can be handed in each Thursday

I hope you all have a fantastic week!
Mr Robson

This half term our topic is:
What Makes Someone Worth Remembering?

English: This week we are refining our setting description skills through the use of adjectives, verbs and adverbs
Maths: This week we are continuing our work on addition and subtraction; focussing on taking away using jottings
History: We will be investigating different theories explaining how the pyramids were built.
Art: Sycamore will be painting their clay designs from last week
Computing: We will be exploring E-Safety and online privacy
Music: In Listen2Me, Sycamore will continue to explore percussion instruments and African-style drumming.

Year 3 to complete 3 tasks; Year 4 to complete 4
Tasks to be completed by half term

Let's Get Quizzical!	Egyptian Equations	Gift of the Nile
Research facts about Egypt - modern and ancient - and transform your knowledge into a quiz. After, test your friends and relatives and see how well they do!	The Ancient Egyptians used hieroglyphics to represent numbers as well as words. Using the Numerals.jpg as a guide, create your own Egyptian maths problems.	Papyrus was used by the Ancient Egyptians to make paper. Follow the instructions in the shared folder (https://bit.ly/2QSBaOK) to make a modern version of papyrus. After, decorate your papyrus with a hieroglyphic message.
Stranger in a Foreign Land Knowing a few simple phrases in another language can be really helpful. Today, the official language in Egypt is Arabic. Create some flashcards for key Arabic phrases you would need on holiday there.	Must Do Reading: Find 2 (or more!) books you have read. Compare and Contrast them (how are they similar/different?) Think about: how the writing is organised, what the book is about, characters, pictures/photos,	Where in the World? Go to https://randomstreetview.com. Use the '-' symbol to minimize the information, then click 'Next'. Using what you can see, try to work out where you are After playing, jot down anything interesting you discovered.
Feast of Pharaohs Have a go at creating an (Ancient) Egyptian delicacy. There are some ideas on this website: https://ancientegyptonline.co.uk/recipes/ Feel free to google other recipes too! After, write a brief review of your creation. Think about: taste, texture and appearance	Domestic Pantheon The Goddess Bastet, who looked like a woman with the head of a cat, was worshipped in Ancient Egypt. Because of this, cats were considered sacred animals and were worshipped too. Think about your own household, what does your family hold sacred?	Tomb Raider Research and recreate an Ancient Egyptian artefact (an object made by a person which is historically interesting). You could make Canopic jars, idols for gods, jewellery, perhaps even a scale sarcophagus!

Spellings -/ul/ at the end of a word spelt '-le' and '-el' Test: 19.10.20
